

GRADUATE TEACHING ASSISTANT

Professional Development | Building Excellence

In partnership with the Office of Research and Graduate Studies, the Office of Curriculum and Instructional Support (CIS) is excited to offer GTA Training, a series designed for graduate teaching assistants. Sessions provide an opportunity to connect regularly to increase transparency around teaching, inspire creativity, and foster engagement. This year's theme, Building Excellence, focuses on topics relevant to the modern classroom and ways to achieve instructional excellence through rich conversations about teaching.

All sessions are offered only in person, bi-weekly on Fridays, at 12:00 p.m. Noon to 1:30 p.m. in Park Library, 413 Classroom D. Lunch is provided. To register for a session, scan the QR code below or visit <http://cisevents.cmich.edu>

Friday 12:00 Noon Sessions | Park Library 413D

- Aug. 25 Starting on the Right Foot: Requirements, Expectations, and Partnering with Faculty
- Sept. 8 Blackboard: The Ultimate Instructional Tool
- Sept. 22 Panel Discussion: Faculty Share Hidden Rules of Academia
- Oct. 6 Behind the Scenes: Grading Strategies & Scenarios
- Oct. 20 Oh, the Joys of Teaching: Managing Your Classroom and Other Issues
- Nov. 3 Fostering Student Success: Addressing Unique Student Needs and Identities
- Nov. 17 Moving Forward: Applying What You've Learned

Lunch is provided to registrants.

To learn more about these events, and to register, visit <https://cisevents.cmich.edu/>

OFFICE OF
CURRICULUM & INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT

CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY