

Application Procedure

The application process for the CMUDI Dietetic Internship is a two-step process. It includes:

1. Registering for the computer matching process through D&D Digital Systems <https://www.dnndigital.com>

and

2. Completing the on-line application through Dietetic Inclusive Centralized Application Services (DICAS) <http://dicas.liaisoncas.com>

Applicants must complete the steps of the application procedure, complete all instructions for each step, and pay all required fees, in order to be considered for the internship.
